Here is the last round review presented by ESL.

The game between Top Four teams took place in Oostende. First ranked host Oostende (10-2) defeated second-best Spirou Charleroi (7-4) 88-82. Oostende made 26-of-33 free shots (78.8 percent) during the game. 31 personal fouls committed by Spirou Charleroi helped opponents get some easy free throw opportunities. Worth to mention a great performance of American forward Chase Fieler (203-92, college: FGCU) who helped to win the game recording 15 points, 6 rebounds and 4 assists and Montenegrin Nemanja Djurusic (203-92, college: Georgia) who added 16 points during the contest. The best for the losing side was American Nate Linhart (201-86, college: Akron) with 21 points, 6 rebounds and 4 assists. Both coaches used bench players which allowed the starters a little rest for the next games. Oostende have an impressive six-game winning streak. Defending champion maintains first position with 10-2 record. Spirou Charleroi at the other side dropped to the fifth place with four games lost. Oostende are looking forward to face Antwerp Giants (#4) on the road in the next round. Spirou Charleroi will play against Okapi Aalstar and is hoping to prove to their fans that this time they can win.

The game in Limburg was also worth to mention about. 7th ranked Kangoeroes (4-8) played at the court of eighth ranked Limburg United (4-7). Limburg United defeated Kangoeroes 98-83. The winners were led by American forward Paul Carter (204-87, college: Ill.-Chicago, agency: Inception Sports) who had that evening a double-double by scoring 16 points, 10 rebounds and 7 assists and Khadeen Carrington supported him with 19 points and 4 assists. Even 26 points, 6 rebounds and 6 assists by Swedish point guard Charles Barton (193-92, college: Oregon St.) did not help to save the game for Kangoeroes. Both coaches tested many bench players and allowed the starting five to rest. Limburg United moved-up to sixth place. Kangoeroes at the other side keep the seventh position with eight games lost. Limburg United will play against Liege Basket (#9) on the road in the next round. Kangoeroes will play against Leuven Bears and hope to get back on the winning track.

Ninth-ranked Okapi Aalstar (3-8) gave a tough game to fourth ranked Basic-Fit Brussels (7-3) on Wednesday. Basic-Fit Brussels managed to secure only one-point victory 88-87. However their fans expected much easier game. Basic-Fit Brussels have a solid four-game winning streak. They moved-up to third place, which they share with Antwerp. Okapi Aalstar lost fourth consecutive game. They dropped to the eighth position with eight games lost. They share it with Liege. Basic-Fit Brussels will meet league's second-placed Belfius Mons-Hainaut in the next round and it will be for sure the game of the week. Okapi Aalstar will play against Spirou Charleroi (#5) and hope to secure a win.

10th ranked Leuven Bears (2-8) were outscored at home by fifth ranked Antwerp Giants (7-3) with the biggest margin this round 90-63. It was a good game for Ismael Bako who led his team to a victory with 15 points. The winner was already known earlier in the game, so both coaches allowed to play the bench players saving starting five for next games. Antwerp Giants have an impressive six-game winning streak. They moved-up to third place, which they share with Brussels. Leuven Bears lost fourth consecutive game. They stay at the bottom position with eight games lost. Antwerp Giants' next round opponent will be league's leader Oostende at home and it will be for sure the game of the week. Leuven Bears will play against Kangoeroes (#7) in Mechelen and hope to win that game.

In the last game of round 12 Liege were destroyed by Mons-Hainaut on the opponent's court 101-78.
